Subject: Once again, pork smell everywhere!

Greetings,

I am so upset that this is happening again! The first time this happened I made it clear that because of religious reasons and physical health concerns, I prefer to not work in an environment that reeks of pigs ass... unfortunately it has happened again. I opened the door to the building and almost fainted. I was unable to enter the second floor and almost vomited on Sabrina (from marriage).

I am filling a formal complaint. I did not choose to work in a restaurant or a pig processing plant. I am headed home with nausea and a headache; I can barely stand to type this email. God bless and have a great day!

Respectfully,

Ester Moore
